Roundtable & Beginners Fly Tying:

Monday August 19, 7:00 PM

Join us for the August summer tiers session and learn the squirmy wormy fly. Vernon Wilson, from Cold Creek Flies, will be our instructor featuring this trout and warm water fly. The squirmy wormy is a variation on the classic San Juan worm and is gaining high praise by those using it. Vernon has his special way of tying it and making it more durable and fishable. New tiers are encouraged to attend

As is our policy, PVFF supplies all materials for this fly. Loaner equipment is available for those needing it for the evening. We meet at Trinity United Methodist church, Room 207, 703 West Patrick Street, Frederick, MD.

Project Healing Waters at Otter Camp:

On July 6th, folks from our Frederick Program and 8 folks from Walter Reed enjoyed a beautiful day fly-fishing at Otter Camp. This has become a very special tradition for PVFF which was made extra special this year with our Participants. Big "Thank You" to Dave Wooster and his team for making it happen.

Make Sure You Are Visiting the Correct PVFF Website:

Our website address is potomacvalleyflyfishers.club. When searching for PVFF online, you may still encounter our old website, www.pvflyfish.org. The old website is no longer maintained by the club. Due to circumstances beyond our control, the site was hijacked by bad actors in Indonesia. We recently discovered that the home page of the old website was modified so that some links now go to gambling sites and other bad places on the Internet. Please do not visit the old site. If you end up there by mistake, ensure you DO NOT click on any links. We continue to attempt to resolve this issue and apologize for any confusion. Please help us spread the word!
